

The reason I purchased a satellite radio is that I can listen to the things I wish to listen to and not the limited range of selections available in my local area on the radio. I'm so tired of fighting the big media owners. I can't wait until this administration is gone and we can get back to living according to the ideals of this country and our constitution.